

POST-SEASON TOURNAMENT FACT SHEET

1. The tournament will be a double elimination tournament.
2. If excessive rain occurs, the double elimination tournament will revert to single elimination tournament with the winner's bracket deciding the champion.
3. Tournament champions will receive a team trophy.
4. All game balls will be at the field. Normal game fees will be in effect.
5. If a game is rained out or preempted because of prior rainouts it will be rescheduled on the next available date. Rained out games will start from the beginning. NOTE: In case of excessive rain a rescheduled game may be immediately followed by a regularly scheduled tournament game. Check the website to verify dates and times
6. Forfeit fee escrow accounts may need to be replenished if any forfeits occurred during the season. The balance is to be $116.
7. The highest ranked team will be the home team. Rankings will shown in () on the bracket. If second a championship game is necessary, a flip of the coin will be used for determining the home team.
8. All league rules apply with these exceptions.
UNIFORM RULE: Any player out of uniform must be given an opportunity to meet the uniform rule requirements upon his detection. If he/she cannot meet the uniform rule requirements, it will be noted on the score sheet but the game will continue.
Immediately at the conclusion of the game, the offended team or any team still remaining in the tournament can request that the out of uniform player's team forfeit any victory that may have been achieved.
INELIGIBLE PLAYER: Ineligible players must be brought to the attention of the umpire and scorer before the conclusion of the game. Valid City of Parma contract cards must be present at each game and shown to the game officials. In the event the identity of a player is questioned, the umpire must decide if a player is ineligible. It is strongly suggested that a signature of the player in question be obtained on the score sheet and checked with the contract card signature. Any ineligible player entering the game will result in a forfeit at that point.
9. Seedings will be determined by the standings as of a predetermined date in July. Any ties will be determined as follows:
 - The first tiebreaker will be head to head competition between the teams tied.
 - The second tiebreaker will be least average number of runs allowed in played games between the teams tied.
 - The third tiebreaker will be a flip of the coin.
10. Any ties for first place in a division will played off on the field on a date to be determined. For tournament-seeding purposes, however, the criteria in item 9 will be used to seed teams tied for first place.
11. The final tournament brackets with team names will be available on the web site, www.parmasoftball.com .
12. Good luck to all teams!!!

*Any rained out regular season game that has a bearing on first place will be rescheduled during tournament open dates whenever possible.
